Luna's Design "Magical Breakdown"

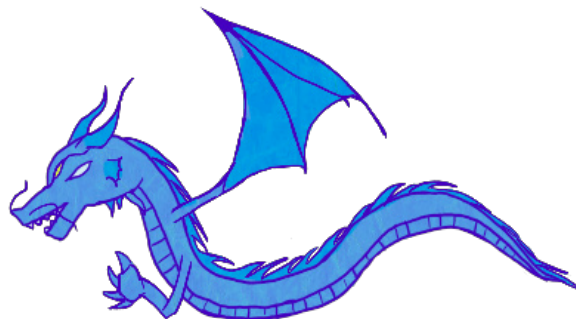

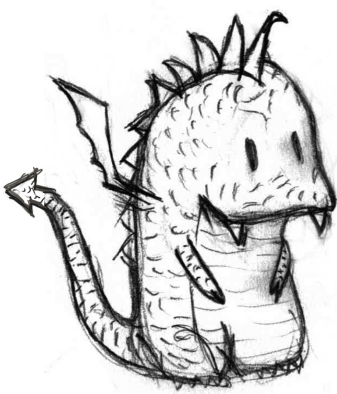

This is the main character for the project "Magical Breakdown".

This project mixes 2-D and 3-D animation in order to differentiate the human world from the dragon world with greater ease.

Dragon Designs for “Magical Breakdown”

Here are the Dragons I created for my Graduation Project from University; “Magical Breakdown”

“Find your Soul Mate” - Asics Project

This is a freelance project I created for Asics, the athletic footwear company.

A kid does not want to go to school and creates an imaginary friend that he would most likely doodle in class and starts chasing him instead of waiting for the bus to go to class.

“The Raven” by Edgar Allan

Part of a storyboard that I created based on the Poem
“The Raven” by Edgar Allan

Shot 1

2 sec.

Establishing shot, low angle of the town

Camera pans down

Midnight bell sounds in the background

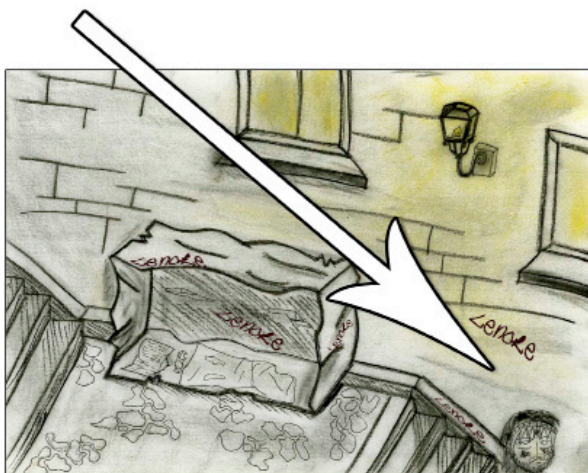

Shot 2

2 sec.

Long shot of the town

Camera pans down and turns to the right

Midnight bell sounds fading out

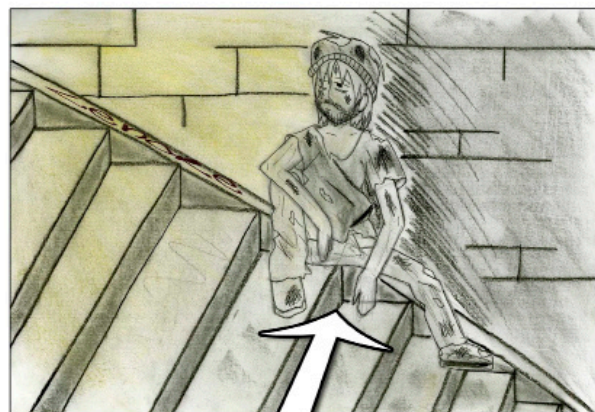

Shot 3

2 sec.

Birds eye point of view pans down right while zooming in towards the bum sitting on the stairs.

Sound of flickering lamp in the background

Shot 4

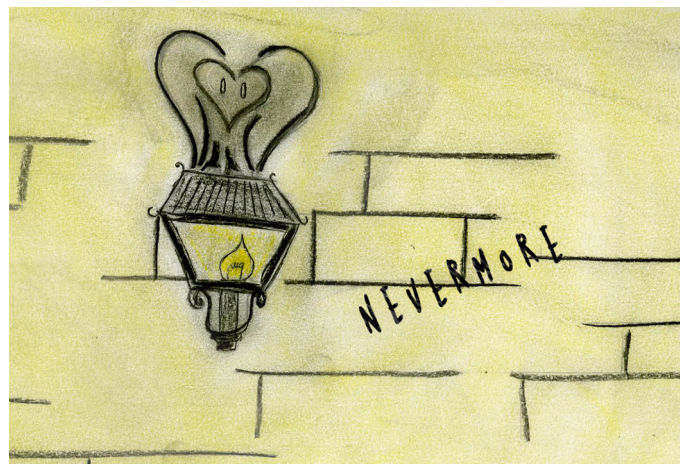

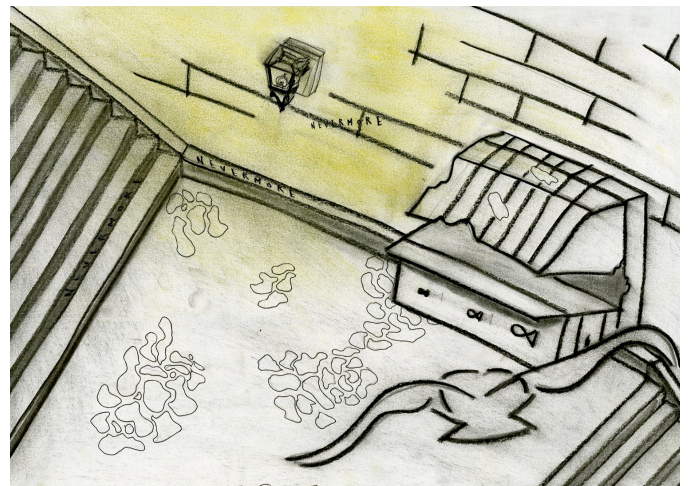

1.5 sec.

Medium shot of the bum sitting on the stairs looking to the moon. Camera slowly zooms into the bums face.

Sound of flickering lamp continues
